Genoua, Jan. 16. N. S.

THE Duke de Sesto, Son to the late Marquis de los Balbaces, having received the News of his Father's Death, intends to repair forthwith to Madrid. Signior Philip Cattaneo is chosen by the Senate to be their Resident at the Court of Rome, and left this Place two days ago on his Journey thither. Our last Advices from Milan say, the Suiss Troops in the Service of that State are marching to Arona, in order to return home as soon as their Arrears, which amount to 55000 Crowns, are paid them, pursuant to the Orders that are lately come from the Court of Spain.

Rome, Jan. 17. The Pope is so well recovered, that he has this week given Audience to Cardinal Spada, Cardinal Sacripante, and the other Cardinals of the Palace, and has signed several Dispatches, and disposed of the vacant Offices; The Foreign Ministers residing here have thereupon desired to be likewise admitted to Audience, but were answered, That the Pope is not yet in a condition to see them. He has given the Bishoprick of Ancona to Cardinal Astri, and that of Viterbo to Cardinal Sancta Croce, who is now returning hither from Vienna, and there being no other Bishoprieks vacant, he has ordered 5000 Crowns to be given to each of the three other new Cardinals, viz. Radolovich, Spercili, and Gabrieli, towards enabling them to maintain their Dignity. Count Lamberg, who is to reside at this Court as the Emperor's Ambassador in the room of Count Martinitz, arrived here the 13th Instant; he has since visited Cardinal Spada, the Pope's Chief Minister, and delivered to him a Copy of his Credentials, and his Excellency is now busied in paying the usual Visits to the other Cardinals. Count Martinitz prepares to return home in few days. The Prince of Monaco intends shortly to make his Publick Entry. The Duke d'Uzeda, Ambassador from Spain, went this day to Fundi, to confer with the Vice-Roy of Naples.

Venice, Jan. 23. The Diversions of the Carnaval were begun here the 20th Instant by a very fine Consort of Musick, at which were present the Duke of Mantua, the Princes Alexander and Constantine Sobiesky, Sons to the late King of Poland, (who arrived here some days ago from Warsaw,) and divers other Persons of Quality. The Convoy with Stores and Provisions for the Levant is ready to sail with the first fair Wind. The Count de Berka, Envoy from the Emperor to this Republick, is daily expected from Vienna, his Equipage being already arrived.

Vienna, Jan. 27. The Emperor has lately made the Counts Schlick, Palfi, and Furstemberg, Lieutenant Generals; and the Counts Marsigly, Sereni, Raventlau, and Glockelsberg, Major Generals. The Grand Signior's Ambassador arrived two days ago at Schonbet, where he will continue till every thing is ready for his Publick Entry here. Count Straatman's departure for Copenhagen, where he is appointed to reside as Envoy from the Emperor, is put off by reason of the new Regulations made by that Court, about the manner of the Reception of the Ministers sent thither with the Character of Envoys. Prince Eugene of Savoy is made one of the Emperor's Council, as is likewise Count Zedelinsky, the Emperor's late Envoy at Warsaw, who upon this account is excused from returning to Poland. The Bishop of Cujavia, who has resided here some time as Envoy from the Crown of Poland, will take his Audience of Leave in a day or two, and intends to go to Rome before he returns home. The Cardinal Santa Croce, the Pope's late Nuncio at this Court, began his Journey to Rome two days ago. They write from Peter Waradin, that a Turkish Officer was come thither to Treat of the Exchange of the Prisoners taken during the War, and that the Turkish Prisoners that were in that City had been accordingly exchanged for a like number of Germans.

Francfort, Febr. 3. The Count of Isenenburg is gone from hence to Metz, to be present at the Election of a Provost of that Cathedral, which Place is lately become Vacant. The Count of Lewestein is appointed by the Emperor to succeed him as his Envoy in this City, and is already arrived at Bamberg. He has a Commission from the Emperor to assist on his part at the Treaty for settling the Dutchess of Orleans Pretensions on the Palatinate, and 'tis believed, this Negociation which has been Interrupted for some time, will be renewed upon his Arrival. Baron Mullern, Envoy from the King of Sweden, went last week from this place to the Dutchy of Deux Ponts, from whence he is to proceed to Nanci, to Compliment the Duke and Dutchess of Lorrain in the name of the King his Master upon the Birth of the Prince their Son. The Bishop of Augsburgh passed through this place two days since going to Dusseldorp.

Cologne, Febr. 5. The Elector of Cologne is gone to Brussels. The States of this Archbishoprick met yesterday in this City. The Baron Saffigh, Envoy from the Elector of Treirs, went from hence some days ago to Dusseldorp, and after a short stay in that place, is to proceed with the same Character to the Court of the Elector of Hanover. They write from Dusseldorp, that 'twas discoursed there that the Elector Palatine has thoughts of taking a Journey in the Spring to Vienna, and from thence to Florence and Rome. The Bishop of Augsburgh is arrived at Dusseldorp from Augsburgh. The Baron Potzelaer, Envoy from the Elector of Brandenburgh, and his Plenipotentiary at the Imperial Diet, is still at the Court of the Elector Palatine,
